TERRIBLE ACCIDENT!

We gave in an extra, on Saturday night, a few of the particulars of the loss of the steamer Lex-CESTON. gton, about 100 miles below the city, on her way NATE. f om St. Louis to this city. Those particulars we assained by the J. C. Fremont. GEIGER.

By the D. A. Given, which arrived yesterday f renoon, we have tulier particulars, and by comuning the two statements, we are satisfi d our aders will be turnished with a correct account.

The accident coursed at about 3 or 4 o'clock Satarday morning, ab u five miles above Stephensport. Against Ordinance..... ### RIVER AND WEATHER.

STILL FALLING. - The river was still falling at 6 o'clock iture on Tuesday. These gentlemen have built npa lastevering, with eight feet ten inches in the canal, by large trade by their correct dealing and promptness in the mark—a fall in the preceding 48 hours of thirteen

> CINCINNATI, June 30-P. M The river has fallen six inches. The weather is cloudy this morning. The weather, on Saturday, was more pleasa than on Friday—one or two showers, and a good breeze. Yesterday no rain, but a pleasant and pretty strong breeze all day .

STRANGE FATALITY .- Of the passengers who arrived on the Baltimore last Friday, from St. Louls, six tool sick and died within 24 hours. The first was a prescher whose name we did not learn, from Evansville in New Albany. Mrs. Saunders and Chas. Burks, of 272 Jederson county, died in this city on Saturday. Three lady passengers, who went up to Cincinnation the Jacob Strader, on Friday, died about 12 o'clock that night, a few minutes after the Strader landed at her wharl.— They were-Mrs. T. S. Taylor, of Philis-leiphia; Mrs Dent, of Flemingsburg, Ky.; and Mrs. Greer, of Alle gheny.

GREAT STORM AT EVANSVILLE - EleHT OR TEN HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.—The steamer Italiabow reports that a terrific storm passed over Evansville, about 12 o'clock, on Saturday, which blew down eight or te houses, unroofed others.—tore up trees, and carried away fences—and that one house took fire, perhas from lightning, and was distroyed. Ne lives lost as for as heard from, but great consternation and fright among the people. Truly have we come into troublesome times.

IT NEVER RAINS, BUT IT POURS .- The old adage provestrue again. It is only about two months since the Fashion sunk-afterwards the Northerner-theu si of the passengers by the Baltimore, sickened and died -then the Lexington blew up, burned up, and turned over. These boats all belong to the Lauisville and St. Louismail hue. We trust no further accident will occur to the boats in that line—uer, indeed, to any either boat. The packets of this line are flue boats, and are concumanded by skillful and careful officers. Then to fill up tue measure of accidents and disasters, the storm at Evansville.

The RIVERS.—The rise from the Missouri reached last night, and up to moon to day the rise at this pol amounted to fifteen or eighteen tuches. The latest a riveds report the Missouri rising, with six feet in thannel. Arrivals to-day are very scarce. Weath excessively warm. At Reckuk, on Tuesday, the rive was at a stand.

The Northerner resumes her trips to Louisz coday. Captain Fuller, who always has an eveto seaulful, has taken advantage of her late spelf of it costs, to paint her np and have her theroughly clear and retovated. She is now about as handsome a bit when first unried out.

HULL PLACE.—Cincinnati must be a miserably dul-place. The other day the Madison came from there with only 700 tons freight, which she had been ten days in collecting, and had no competition either. The fo
